

WNTC Chooses Board Members

WNTC elected new board members last Friday night. Arnie Gosewich was elected Station Manager, and Lydia Urban the Assistant Station Manager.

Arnie is a Junior at Clarkson, majoring in Business Administration, and during this last year worked as Director of Announcers.

Lydia is a sophomore at Potsdam and was previously secretary for the board.

During the coming year, Arnie hopes to be able to move the radio station from its present location behind the Crane House to a new and better spot. He also hopes to get a new machine for the station, so that world news could be broadcast several times a day to the students.

Other new members of the board include Kathryn Funnell as secretary; Dave Jennings, personnel director; Paul Zieske, director of operations; Dan Gionet, director of announcers; Ray Black, director of control room operations; Harvey Glatt, sports director; Roger Ancona, director of news; Mary Anna Johnson, director of record library; Max Ehrlich, director of
